Oregon Institute of Marine Biology
Application for Visiting Researchers or Groups

Individuals wishing to conduct research at OIMB or groups requiring OIMB facilities should fill out this form and also contact the director by phone or e-mail to discuss specific needs and scheduling.

Name: _________________________  Number of Individuals in group:_______
Email: ___________________________
Address:________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

General description of research or teaching plan.
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Preferred dates: _______________    Alternative dates:  ___________________

Research space required: _____________________________________________

Specialized equipment you will need:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Do you anticipate using radioisotopes? __________

List hazardous chemicals you expect to use:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

What organisms do you plan to collect? (species and approximate numbers)
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

If you plan to collect organisms do you have a valid Oregon collecting permit?
________________________________________________________________________

Does your group require meals in the dining hall?

Do you anticipate using the R/V Pluteus?________  How many days? _________

Will you need small boats for bay and estuarine work?_______________________

Does your work require SCUBA? ______________________

Housing Preference (see web site for descriptions of units): ________________