

Fall 2014 OIMB Seminar Series

Oregon Institute of Marine Biology
Charleston, Oregon
Boathouse Auditorium, Fridays 4:00 pm

- Oct 3
4:00 p.m. Dr. Janis Weeks, University of Oregon
"The only good worm is a dead worm: high-tech methods to combat ancient parasitic diseases"
- Oct 10
4:00 p.m. Dr. Richard Emlet, Oregon Institute of Marine Biology
"Chiton embryos and larvae: New observations on swells, shells, and swimming"
- Oct 17
4:00 p.m. Dr. Alan Shanks, Oregon Institute of Marine Biology
"Upwelling and surf zones - how do they affect barnacle populations"
- Oct 24
4:00 p.m. Dr. Giora Proskurowski, University of Washington
"Plastic in the global ocean: an oceanographic perspective"
- Oct 31
4:00 p.m. Dr. Bree Yednock, South Slough National Estuarine Research Reserve
"A comprehensive look at the effects of the Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill on populations of the blue crab (Callinectes sapidus)"
- Nov 7
7:00 p.m. Dr. Bruce Mate, Oregon State University
Topic: TBA
Public Seminar at 7PM
- Nov 14
4:00 p.m. Dr. Kelly Robinson, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration
Topic: TBA
- Nov 21
4:00 p.m. TBA
- Nov 28
4:00 p.m. TBA
- Dec 5
4:00 p.m. Dr. Bob Cowen, Oregon State University
"A new window to assess the predator/prey environment for larval stages of fish"

OIMB Boathouse Auditorium

Please park on Boat Basin Road and walk to the OIMB Boathouse
Call (541) 888-2581 or email oimb@uoregon.edu for more information

